ORDER:

WHEREAS, the Collector & District Magistrate, Chittoor District, Chittoor has made an order of detention, vide reference first read above under Section 3 (1) & (2) r/w. Section 2(a) & (g) of the Andhra Pradesh Prevention of Dangerous Activities of Bootleggers, Dacoits, Drug Offenders, Goondas, Immoral Traffic Offenders and Land Grabbers Act, 1986 (Act No.1 of 1986), against Sri G.M. Venkatesh, S/o Y. Madanagirappa, aged 32 years, D.No.107, Govindhapuram Village, Jadagana halli, Hoskota Taluq, Bangalore Rural District, Karnataka State, for illicit cutting, stocking and transportation of Red Sanders heartwood causing tremendous loss of National Wealth repeatedly, depletion of green cover resulting in adverse ecological balance having ramification on the health and well being of the public property and subsequently smuggling the same to Chennai/Bangalore and other unknown places, this activities are prejudicial to the maintenance of public order;

2. AND WHEREAS, the Government have accorded approval of the said detention order under sub-section (3) of Section 3 of the Act, vide Government Orders second read above;

3. AND WHEREAS, under Section 10 of the Act, Government within three weeks from the date of detention of a person under the order shall place the case before the Advisory Board on Preventive Detentions, constituted under Section 9 of the said Act, comprising of Justice Sri T.L.N. Reddy (Retired), Chairman and two other Members and the Advisory Board shall submit its report to Govt., within seven weeks from the date of detention under Section 11(1) of the said Act. The above said case was placed before the Advisory Board for its consideration and to submit its report to Government, under Section 11 (1) of the said Act, vide reference 3rd read above. The case was reviewed by the Advisory Board on 22.07.2016. The prayer of detenue to engage an Advocate is rejected. After having heard the detenu and the Investigating Officers besides his Wife, Smt. Nagaveni and his Father-in-Law, Sri Venkataswamy and perused the representations of the detenue also upon perusing the grounds of detention and the connected records, has reported that in its opinion, "there is sufficient cause for the detention of the detenu, Sri G.M. Venkatesh, S/o Y. Madanagirappa, aged 32 years, D.No.107, Govindhapuram Village, Jadagana halli, Hoskota Taluq, Bangalore Rural District, Karnataka State";

4. AND WHEREAS, the Government on careful examination of the entire record, it is observed that the detenue, Sri G.M. Venkatesh, S/o Y. Madanagirappa, aged 32 years, D.No.107, Govindhapuram Village, Jadagana halli, Hoskota Taluq, Bangalore Rural District, Karnataka State, was involved in as many as in 6 (Six) cases. The above cases were registered against him, under the provisions of Section 20(i) (a) © (ii) (iii) (vi) & (X), of A.P. Forest Act, 1967 r/w Rule 3 of A.P. Red Sandal Wood & Red Sanders Wood Transit Rules; under Section 29 (4)(b) of Wild Life Protection Act, 1972 and 55(2) of Biological Diversity Act, 2002 and Section 147, 148, 307,323,324,332,353, 307, & 379 & 120 (B) IPC r/w 149, of IPC. The details shows that he is a habitual offender. He is committed a series of forest offences by entering Government Reserve Forests without proper authorisation, serving standing red sanders trees heart wood to secret destinations in Bangalore/ Chennai and other un-known places. He has not stopped the same type of offences, even after cases and charge sheets were filed against him. It is also evident from the case records that he is engaging huge number of persons in the clandestine business and they were arrested along with the red sander stock at the time of cutting of tress and during transportation. The said activities are dangerous to forest wealth and prejudicial to maintenance of public order apart from disturbing the peace, tranquility, social harmony / order in the society and he became a source of potential danger to the public. The said offences are punishable under Forest Act, 1967 and the rules made there under, as well as Chapter XVI or XVII or XXII of IPC. As such the activities of the individual falls under and within the meaning of 'Goonda' as defined under section 2(g) of Act 1 of 1986. All the incidents mentioned in the grounds of detention clearly substantiate as to how the acts of the detenu are prejudicial to the maintenance of public order. In catena of decisions, the Hon'ble Courts held that any acts of attempt or illegal cutting of the red sander trees and smuggling the timber, would certainly have its impact on the public order. The detaining authority having taken into account and consideration of indulgence of the detenu in the above said activities repeatedly at regular intervals and having satisfied that the penal laws have failed to curb his illegal activities, has passed the detention order against the detenu by invoking the provisions under the Act 1of 1986, in order to prevent him from indulging further in such activities, which are prejudicial to maintenance of public order and dangerous to forest wealth. The Advisory Board after review of the case, has opined that there is sufficient cause for the detention of the detenu. As such, the detenu deserves the maximum period of detention, as provided under Section 13 of the Act;

5. Now, therefore, after due consideration of the report of the Advisory Board and the material available on record, Government, in exercise of the powers conferred under sub-section (1) of Section 12 read with Section 13 of the said Act, hereby confirm the Order of Detention made by the Collector & District Magistrate, Chittoor District, Chittoor in the reference 1st read above, as approved in the G.O. 2nd read above and direct that the detention of Sri G.M. Venkatesh, S/o Y. Madanagirappa, aged 32 years, D.No.107, Govindhapuram Village, Jadagana halli, Hoskota Taluq, Bangalore Rural District, Karnataka State, be continued for a period of 12 (Twelve) months from the date of his detention, i.e. 27.06.2016.
